The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangement you select will include a charge for basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy an item you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

This list does not include cash advance items, such as newspaper notices, certified copies of the death certificate, flowers, organist fees, clergy honoraria and cemetery services. The cash advance will be shown on the statement of funeral goods and services. The necessity for these items varies depending on the type of services you select.

Professional Services

Basic Services of Funeral Director and Staff

$1,425.00

This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. (This fee is included in our charges for direct cremations, immediate burials, and forwarding or receiving remains.) In some instances, only a proportionate share of this basic service fee may be applied according to the type of services selected.

This fee includes the following: Personnel available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year to respond to initial call, Arrangement conference and clerical assistance in the completion of various forms associated with a funeral, Securing and recording the death certificate and disposition permit and A pro-rata share of the costs for insurance, taxes, telephone and communications, secretarial and office expenses, maintenance, staff training and licensing, legal, accounting and other fixed expenses.

Embalming

$795.00

Except in certain, special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as a direct cremation or immediate burial. This charge is for a licensed embalmer, using "best management practices" and "universal precautions" as required by the Bloodborne Pathogens Regulations of OSHA and the South Carolina State Board of Funeral Service. Charges also include the use of the embalming room, preparation supplies, equipment, emergency equipment and annual training for compliance with OSHA regulations for formaldehyde exposure and disposal of regulated medical waste.
